Regards, MAJ Hey d00d, thanks for the great tutorial! I already did most of your changes to my DSDT too, in order to try CPU Power Management get going.. I saw that you changed CID to fix 'stutter problems', but that doesn't help either.. As for adding it to a script Right now, I got too many irons in the fire A bit at a time.. 'bout time they 'approved' this topic! Look at all this info! Great resource Good stuff, d00d!This ought to be stickied or, at least, kept on top.

Gigabyte Ex58 Ud5 Drivers For Macbook ProThe EX58-UD5 is the latest high performance X58 Series motherboards of GIGABYTE, designed from the ground up to unleash the awesome power of Intel's.. The second I move my mouse it stops and plays fine, it seems that the CPU throttles down that much, that iTunes can't play properly.. Now, I haven't gone through all of this, so bear with my noobie question: How much of this is GA-58 specific and how much is board agnostic? Some I can see as specific to our board, like audio, as it requires proper kext and layout ID and pin configs (pin configs not listed - pulled from kext, I assume?).. I tried overclocking it to BCLK 185 like you did, but that doesn't fix the stuttering either.. The EX58-UD5 is the latest high performance X58 Series motherboards of GIGABYTE, designed from the ground up to unleash the awesome power of Intel's new Core i7 processors.. But I always have the same problem, that my iTunes plays very slowly and stutters when I don't do anything else.. 5 (with your plist addition) is the same too Thanks, hanzoh Hey d00d, thanks for the great tutorial!I already did most of your changes to my DSDT too, in order to try CPU Power Management get going..
